Re: "Humanize" teaching of Mathematics

Dear Principals,

SYNA International School, Katni (MP) is pleased to invite you for a workshop on "Humanize" teaching of Mathematics for Educators and students from 02.10.2018 to 05.10.2018 at its school campus. In the workshop various educational strategies to bring vignettes of the history in our classrooms will be discussed. The strategy makes the subject more interesting and more motivating. Students learn the origins of the subject and look forward to find its deeper meaning and its unparalleled beauty. They understand that the subject is an outcome of human efforts and does not fall from heavens. Dr. Gurcharan Singh Bhalla, Emeritus Professor Bronx Community College of the City University of New York, USA has given his consent to conduct the workshop.

Profile of Dr. Bhalla: Dr. Gurcharan Singh Bhalla, have been an ardent educator for more than fifty years. During this tenure, he has served as a teacher, Principal and a college professor in India, Kuwait and the United States of America. He has conducted workshops for teachers of mathematics at Indian IPSC Schools, other Private Schools and Colleges of Education. The focus of the workshops is to humanize the teaching of the subject by introducing the history of each concept taught. This makes the subject both student and teacher friendly. The workshop has since been conducted in almost 60 schools and colleges of education in India. It has touched more than 1200 teachers and student teachers. The workshops are still continuing. Dr. Bhalla has conducted workshops for India's Top schools. To name some- Mayo College, Ajmer, Rajasthan, Rajkumar College, Rajkot.
